

Thermals

Thermals is a temperature logging and imaging system developed for the Argonne National Laboratory MCS department. The server component is based on the TurboGears Python framework.

If you have any questions, email Jonathon Anderson at janderso@?.